Business $ense

Business Owners
If divorce is inevitable, there's a better way!

Divorce rates in the US have been declining over the last decade and, if you want to call it good news, NJ has one of the lowest divorce rates in the Country. Although, while declining, the divorce rate among business owners remains higher than the national average. The dissolution of a marriage can be emotionally and financially overwhelming, so it's extremely important to be informed about your options before beginning this difficult process.
