Term Sheets & Their Role in Business

Whether seeking to obtain financing, negotiating the purch of real property, or entering into a partnership, most si business owners will encounter term sheets at some point its most basic form, a term sheet is a non-binding document setting forth the material terms and conditions of a business agreement. It then serves as a blueprint for drafting the final contract.

Reminder

Planning the Exit Strategy

Every successful Entrepreneur has planned along the way. You have planned the startup & planned for expansion and growth but have you thought about planning your exit? Surveys indicate that the majority of small to medium sized business owners do not have a family member who is interested in taking the reigns. What should an owner do? Since most types of businesses can be sold, having a plan is the most prudent course of action. When developing that plan it helps to know what your business will look like to a prospective buyer. Whether you are going to sell to a competitor or a family business owner here a few steps you can take to make your business look its best.
