NJ Small Business Development Centers are Not Just for Start-Up Businesses

Are you an existing business looking to grow? The America's New Jersey Small Business Development Center network can help. Fifty percent of the clients served by the New Jersey Small Business Centers' (NJSBDC) network of 12 statewide centers are established small business owners, while the other half consists of early-stage entrepreneurs and fledging new businesses. What each has in common is the need for the tools and strategies that can help them reach the next level of growth. The wide range of knowledge of the experts at NJSBDC incorporates national best practices.
